

A REFERRAL RESOURCE FOR THERAPISTS

DIVORCE OPTIONS® SACRAMENTO

FREE • LIVE • ONLINE

A clearer next step you can share.

A neutral introduction to the legal, financial, and family sides of California divorce—without advice about an individual situation.

WHAT CLIENTS CAN EXPECT

One workshop. Four perspectives.

- 01 A plain-language orientation to the California court process
- 02 Financial questions involving information, property, debt, support, taxes, and budgeting
- 03 Family transition, communication, and child-centered considerations
- 04 Self-management, traditional representation, mediation, and collaborative divorce

CLIENT-READY LANGUAGE

Divorce Options® is a free, live online educational workshop from Sacramento Collaborative Divorce Group. It introduces the legal, financial, and family sides of California divorce and explains four common process options. The workshop offers general information rather than advice about your individual situation.

IMPORTANT BOUNDARIES

Education—not individualized guidance.

- No legal, financial, tax, or mental-health advice
- No recommendation of a process or professional
- No safety planning, crisis response, or emergency assistance
- No professional-client relationship is created
